A lifelong Alaskan, Linn Weeda received his baccalaureate from UAF, where his trumpet teacher was James Kowalsky and his conducting teacher was Gordon Wright. He received his Master's from Boston University, where he studied trumpet with Armando Ghitalla and Roger Voisin, won the concerto competition, and was student of the year.

Further studies were with Julio Tancredi in trumpet, Larry Scripp in solfege, Charles Bruck and Gunther Schuller in conducting. He has also studied with the principal trumpeters of the Atlanta, London, Los Angeles, and Rotterdam orchestras.

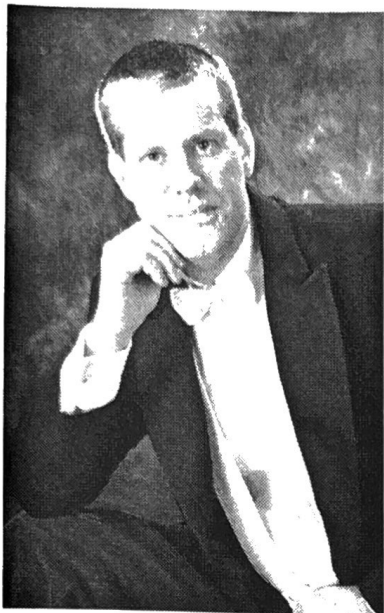

As a freelancer in Boston, he was a member of a number of orchestras and was heard nationally on National Public Radio performing on baroque trumpet with the Smithsonian Chamber Players. He has given recitals and performed concertos throughout the country and in Asia. He has appeared with most of the orchestras and festivals in Alaska as soloist – most recently appearing with the Anchorage Symphony, performing a world premier of a trumpet concerto written for him by Boston composer Louis Stewart.

As a conductor, Weeda led orchestras in the United States, Australia, New Zealand, and Germany. He has been Music Director of the Fairbanks Youth Symphony and founded the Tupelo (Mississippi) Community Orchestra. He was Staff Conductor of the Greater Boston Youth Symphony. He regularly conducts the Anchorage Symphony Orchestra in the annual Halloween concert and in Young People's Concerts. He has led the AYS on tours within Alaska and on international tours to Australia and, in the summer of 2010, to China.

Currently Weeda is Music Director of the Anchorage Youth Symphony, Assistant Music Director and Principal Trumpet of the Anchorage Symphony, Principal Trumpet of the Anchorage Opera. In addition to his many credits as a performer, Weeda has taught at King's Lake Music Camp, University of Alaska Fairbanks Summer Fine Arts Camp, and the Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival. Currently he teaches classes in ear training, solfege, and trumpet at the University of Alaska Anchorage.

JYS Conductor: David Hagen

David Hagen has been a music educator in the Anchorage School District since 1996, teaching beginning band and orchestra, and also served as ASD's Music Curriculum Coordinator for two years. His original compositions and arrangements for beginning band are often heard at local music festivals.

In addition to his work with ASD, Hagen serves as choir director at Anchor Park United Methodist Church as well as artistic director/conductor of the Alaska Chamber Singers, one of the state's finest music ensembles. He has conducted the ACS in such major works as Bach's Magnificat, Christmas Oratorio and numerous cantatas; Bernstein's Chichester Psalms; Fauré's Requiem; Haydn's The Creation, Mozart's Mass in C and Requiem; and Poulenc's Gloria. In the fall of 2004 he led a performance of Britten's monumental War Requiem, a joint production with the Anchorage Concert Chorus, Alaska Chamber Singers and Alaska Children's Choir.

Hagen served as chorus master with the Anchorage Opera for several seasons, preparing such works as Carmen, Die Fledermaus, Romeo et Juliette and Sweeney Todd. From 1990 to 1994, he was general director of the Anchorage Festival of Music. He was founder and music director of AVE, a vocal ensemble that performed to much acclaim in Anchorage in the 1990s. Having grown up in Anchorage, Hagen received his earliest musical training in the Anchorage School District, performing in such ensembles as the Service High School Symphonic Band and the Anchorage Youth Symphony.

Hagen holds a Master of Music degree in choral conducting from the University of Cincinnati College Conservatory of Music. In 2007 he was awarded the Anchorage Mayor's Arts Award for Outstanding Individual Artist.

ANNA BOSLOUGH

Anna Boslough was born in Anchorage, Alaska, where she plans to live. She speaks Swiss German as a first language and loves Swiss chocolate. After playing piano and violin, she settled on the flute, which she enjoys because it allows her to channel her emotions into sounds worth listening to. In addition to playing classical music, Anna also enjoys playing jazz and composing. She wrote her favorite piece for a pan flute she made out of test tubes from her chemistry class. Anna plans to go to college and medical school to become a surgeon. She has spent roughly 350 hours watching surgeries and is fascinated by every one of them. In the summer, Anna enjoys traveling to the Arctic with her family, where she fly fishes, swims, and rafts in rivers. Anna wants to continue playing the flute in college and beyond, and hopes to find the same fun and excitement she has found in AYS throughout her musical life.

CHRIS JUNE

Chris is a trumpet player from South High School and has been a member of AYS for 2 years. He's been a member of the South High Symphonic Band for 3 years, including as the principal trumpet player this year. He's played with the South High Band in 2008 and 2009 and was an alternate in 2010, participated in the State Solo and Ensemble in 2010, and has received a letter and pin in recognition of his participation in South High Band. He has also participated in South High Jazz Band for 2 years and is the principal trumpet this year. He's played in the pit orchestra for West Side Story (2009), Oliver (2009), and Beauty and the Beast (2010). Chris' other interests include country skiing and running, and in his free time he volunteers at the Anchorage Museum. In the future, he plans to attend a West Coast college majoring in history, then attend graduate school for museum studies.

CEALICE KENNISON

Cealice plays cello for the AYS and is a senior at Colony High School. Some of her musical honors include: All State Winner Competition 2006 – Florida (violin), All State Winner Competition 2007- Florida (cello), All State Winner Competition 2008- Florida (cello), Concerto Competition 2009- Florida (2nd place -piano), All State Winner Competition and Solo ensemble participant regional 2010- Alaska (cello), All State Winner Competition 2011 – Alaska (cello), Spotlight for Young Musicians radio WQCS award. Cealice enjoys reading books, running, dancing, watching Fringe and volunteering at Humane Society. In the future, she hopes to establish music program in the Mat-Su area, perform in a professional orchestra and form a quartet or duet.

AARON HAYNES

Aaron is a senior at Service High and plays cello for the AYS. Aaron has been a member of Service High School's Concert Orchestra for four years, section leader of the cellos for three years, and first chair for three years. He has received multiple orchestra letters and this past year received a trophy and plaque for his work with the orchestra. He has played in the All State Orchestra for three years, participated in State Solo and Ensemble for four years, mentored in conducting, and has had the privilege to take lessons from the best private teacher anyone could ask for, Linda Ottum, for the past five years.

Aaron plans on attending college and pursuing a career in law, medicine, or film. This year Aaron is Secretary-General of the Anchorage Model United Nations Assembly and received an award from the Alaska World Affairs Council recognizing my, "excellence in international affairs." He is an officer in Service High School's National Honor Society and served as a representative for Service on the Anchorage School District's Student Advisory Board.
