Slavic March, op. 31 Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky

Karl Pasch was born and raised in Anchorage, graduating from Dimond High School in 1987. His early performance experiences began as a clarinetist with the Anchorage Junior High Symphony Orchestra. He went on to perform with the National High School Honors Orchestra, McDonald's All-American Marching Band, and Walt Disney World All-American College Orchestra. Continuing his studies at the Eastman School of Music, the University of Michigan, and the University of Texas, he earned degrees in clarinet performance and instrumental conducting. He is currently serving as Assistant Conductor of the Anchorage Civic Orchestra and works with his father, Kurt Pasch, at the Music Man.

Together we can make beautiful music.

Classical Music Station of the Year.

Each year America's classical music stations vote to choose the winner of the Marconi Radio Award for Classical Music Station of the Year.

This year, just in time for our fifth birthday, they chose us.

KLEF, 98.1 on your FM dial, where the music is always classical.
