SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Megan Bledsoe is a senior at East High School and a three year member of the Anchorage Youth Symphony where she plays both bassoon and harp. She also is experienced in percussion. She has performed on both bassoon and harp for All State, and has participated in the Command Performance at the state solo and ensemble festival. She has also performed with the Anchorage Symphony, Anchorage Opera, Anchorage Civic Orchestra, East Symphonic Band, concert orchestra, swing choir, jazz band (on bass) and is vice president of the East High Band Council. In addition, she is vice president of the East High Mu Alpha Theta (Math Club) and a member of the science club. She has earned a solo certificate in pilot training, and is a National Merit Scholar. Other interests include woodworking, riding motorcycles, flying airplanes, downhill skiing, cross country running and sleeping. Future plans include attending music school and becoming a pilot.

Megan Bledsoe

Tom East is a senior at Service High School and a two year member of the Anchorage Youth Symphony percussion section where he is principal this year. He is also a member of the Anchorage Symphony Orchestra percussion section and an amateur piano tuner. He hopes to attend one of the major music schools in the country, Oberlin Conservatory, Berklee Music School, Juilliard, or North Texas University majoring in music performance and perhaps minoring in psychology. After college he would like to be a tenured musician in one of the east coast or European orchestras.

Tom East

"In the end I think of music as saving grace for all humanity." —Henry Miller

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Blake Langdon is a senior at East High School and a three year member of the Anchorage Youth Symphony cello section. She performed at the All State festival in 2002 and in the solo and ensemble festival in 2001 and 2002. She is a member of the National Honor Society, swim team captain, vice president of the Student Advisory Board of the East High School Within a School and vice president of orchestra council. She is active in student government and the math club. Other interests include soccer, volunteering and science. She plans to attend college and study math and science.

Blake Langdon

Kimberlee Kogane is a senior at West High School and a two year member of the Anchorage Youth Symphony flute section where she is principal flute. She was accepted into the Northern California Flute Camp in 2001 and 2002, and is a four year member of the Arctic Winds Flute Choir. She competed in the 2001 state solo and ensemble festival. She is a member of the National Honor Society and a University of Alaska Scholar. Other interests include kayaking, beading and interior design. In college she plans to major in architecture and minor in music.

Kimberlee Kogane

"Music was my refuge. I could crawl into the spaces between the notes and curl my back to loneliness."—Maya Angelou

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Molly Aqua is a senior at West High School and a first year viola player in the Anchorage Youth Symphony. She has won section leadership awards and performed in the solo and ensemble festival. She enjoys playing movie scores and also enjoys playing for special events. She hopes to be a member of a symphony wherever she resides in the future so she can continue with her viola playing.

Molly Aqua

Sarah Aarons is a senior at West High School and a first year member of the Anchorage Youth Symphony flute section. She has completed level 2 of the Associated Board Music Theory Exam and is a member of the Arctic Wind Flute Choir. She is on the high school honor roll, a nominee for Young Woman of Achievement award, and a member of the National Honor Society. She is a member of Team Alaska Track Club and enjoys cross country running and track. She plans to attend college and major in ecology.

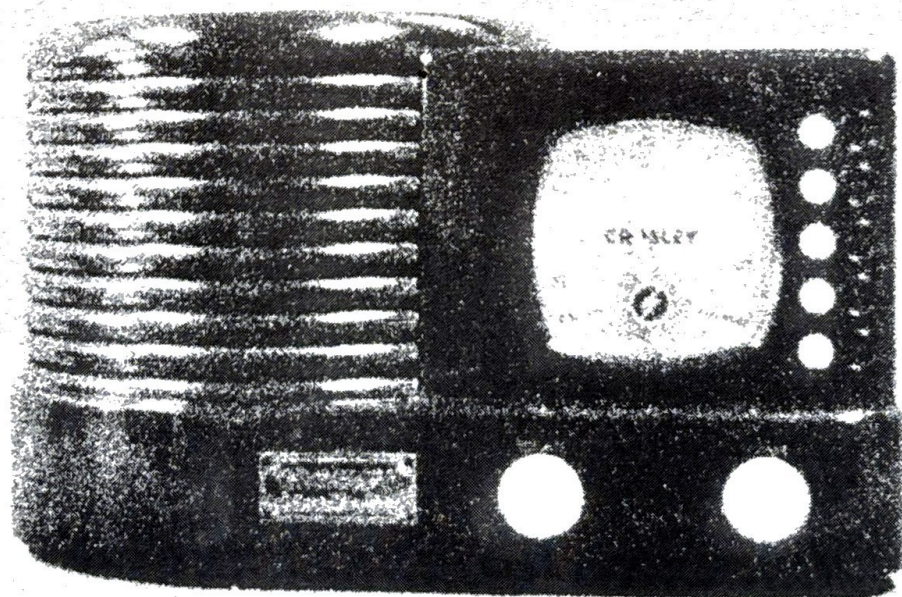

Sarah Aarons

"Of course, no artist can perform with machinelike precision every time. Modern recording techniques can deal easily with any contingencies, but listening under 'live' conditions adds the welcome human touch to music's infinite pleasures."—Karl Haas
